SUPERVISOR EMILIO CUE CITES HIS RECORD IN EFFECTING TAX REDUCTION

Has Saved Over Eighteen Thousand Dollars Per Annum To Tax-Payers In Beat 5—Outlines His Aims For A Continuance Thereof, If Re-Elected.

Supervisor Emilio Cue, of Beat 5, and president of the board, candidate for re-election at the polls next Tuesday, addresses the following to the voters of Beat No. 5, Hancock County, Miss.:

Since I will not have an opportunity to see each of you with a view of presenting to you not only my record but my aims if re-elected, as well as giving you other facts, I take this occasion to present my position as a candidate for re-election in the Second Primary to be held on the 25th of this month.

In the last primary I had four opponents; their total combined vote was 775.

Not having received a majority of all votes cast and notwithstanding the fact that I led my nearest opponent by 268 votes, I become necessary that a Second Primary be held for that office.

I assume that the public knows that the Board of Supervisors is the body that not only levies the tax on all property but distributes the money that the county collects in taxes, and therefore, in reference to taxation it is the supreme body within the county, and I assume also that the people are interested primarily in the reduction of taxes. I further assume that in casting a vote on that issue you would prefer having a record that shows reduction of taxes than just a bare promise of a possibility, with no record of accomplishment behind it.

I went into office in January, 1928. At that time Mr. H. S. Weston was President of the Board (the President being chosen by the members.) When Mr. Weston resigned the members of the board thought enough of me, thought I was the youngest member thereon, not only in age but in time of service, to select me as their president.

On Nov. 1st, 1928, the total indebtedness of the county was $2,042,500.00.

Since that time there has been paid on the principal of that indebtedness—$235,000.00. And an account of interest, all of which has been paid to date—$438,415.75. Making a total payment of $707,865.75.

BAY BOY SCOUTS RETURN

Home From Camp Salmen At Slidell and Capture Distinction—Excellent Showing.

Boy Scout Troop 208 returned August 15th, from Camp Salmen, at Slidell, La., very much elated over the fact that they were the recipients of many honors.

At Court of Honor the following were presented as Second Class Scouts: P. Ferguson, Terry Ansley and Jerry Dickson.

The following ribbons were won—Rifle Match, J. Pepperdene, 1st. Chas. Kergosien, second. Junior Life Saver: Chas. Kergosien.

Best Cabin Leader: Jerry Dickson. In the cabin contests, "Nakni" cabin consisting of Porter Barnes, Terry Ansley, Jerry Dickson, P. Ferguson, David Griffith, Chas. Kergosien, Jack Pepperdene, won the Basket Ball Contest and Track meet.

In the above contests there were entered 26 cabins, containing about 125 boys. The boys thoroughly enjoyed themselves as was expressed by their desire to return next summer. The time was mostly consumed with passing tests, aquatic sports and instructions in different classes of handicraft work, such as leather-craft, basketry, wood carving and bead work. A number of articles of this craftwork made by themselves were brought home.

Many Attend Card Benefit Party For Church Last Monday

Seeking fifty dollars as their goal, ladies of the parish of the church of Our Lady of the Gulf, held a card party at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Clubhouse Monday afternoon, and realized far in excess of the amount sought. This amount was necessary to round out the sum of a thousand dollars as a result of the recent mid-summer church fair for Our Lady of the Gulf. The ladies in charge deserve a lot of credit and the public thanked for their liberal response.

NATIVE DIES AT ORLEANS

Aristide Ladner, Member of Old and Well-Known Family, Interred in Home Soil.

Aristide Harry Ladner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Ladner, well-known and among the oldest families of Bay St. Louis in its earlier days, passed away at his home in New Orleans Tuesday morning at 2:45 o'clock, following an illness, aged 59 years.

He is survived by his wife, before her marriage, Miss Jeanne Telhiard, and one daughter, Mrs. W. J. Freche, and granddaughter, Imelda Freche, of New Orleans, and four brothers and three sisters.

The brothers include Sylvan J. Ladner, city commissioner; Victor Ladner of Lakeshire, Cyril (Pat) Ladner and Alcide Ladner residing in Bay St. Louis. The sisters are Mrs. Joseph L. Favre, Mrs. Cecil Dubuisson and Miss Emma Ladner, all residents of Bay St. Louis.

Funeral services took place from the church of the Sacred Heart at New Orleans Wednesday morning and later the body was transferred to Bay St. Louis where it was laid away in native soil at Cedar Rest cemetery, this latter ceremony taking place at 1 o'clock.

The deceased was well-known in Bay St. Louis during his early life when he was connected with the mercantile business, for many years perhaps better known as an attaché of the August Keller establishment, and later with other firms. Twenty-seven years ago he decided to move to New Orleans and from time to time visited this city.

Relatives have the sympathy of the many friends of the family both here and in New Orleans where he deceased was widely known.

INTER-CITY ROTARY MEETING

Joint Ladies' Night at Pass Christian Thursday Is Splendid Event.

Pass Christian and Bay St. Louis Rotary Clubs held a joint ladies' night session at Grey Castle, Pass Christian, Thursday night, and a more delightful occasion could not have been enjoyed with keener and lasting pleasure than this memorable one.

Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian Rotary Clubs enjoy an indissoluble bond of neighborliness and good will, and every occasion of "get-together" serves to further strengthen this spirit.

Some sixty guests sat together at a long table, beautifully appointed, with pink Radianse rose-buds predominating along the long table line, a gift to the clubs of two cities from W. F. Adam, of the Lorraine Flower Shop.

The meeting was jointly presided over by Bernard Knost, president, Pass Christian club, and Chas. G. Morau, president, Bay St. Louis club, seated side by side.

President Knost delivered the address of welcome, short and to the point but long in warmth of cordiality, paying tribute to Rotary, to the guests present and impressing every listener with the sincerity of the well-meaning speaker.

President Knost's address struck a happy keynote for the evening, and the speakers easily proved one of unforgettable memory.

For Bay St. Louis Chas. G. Morau, president Bay St. Louis Club, responded. He said that he was glad to have the title of "A Tale of Two Cities" saying this getting together, this outpouring manifestation of friendship and fraternizing, and the motif of it all, between Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian was well a tale of two cities.

"That is what we have tonight," he said, "this getting together in cordial spirit, in friendly gesture, and to again renew our lasting friendship and brotherly love for both home and city. We are literally breaking bread with you tonight, under your hand again, the same as you did last year when you came to the shore of Bay St. Louis. We do not forget these gestures—these manifestations of closer friendship, and that is why we are tonight with you to mingle and bask in the sunshine of your friendship."

This joint ladies' night, I understand, is to be a fifty-fifty proposition, but so far as my part of it is concerned as the speaker from Bay St. Louis, I am afraid it is going to be another case of the negro and his rabbit stew.

Concluding the speaker said, in part: "Our coming over here tonight reminds me of the saying of the French to the effect where the grass is permitted to grow over the path between the homes of two friends, soon that pathway is no more. It is grown up in weeds, typical of the friendship that has gone to decay. Visits will keep the path ever visible, there will be no growth to cover its lines, but on the contrary, the path shall ever remain smooth and its lines ever traced."

"The building of the auto bridge has been another manifestation of part in order we may get closer to you and in order we may make the journey to and from at will. We did the same, thus the two cities are connected not only with a bond of steel and timbers but with that band of friendship that know no weight and no breaking."

A number of clever stunts followed, including Mr. and Mrs. Muller's "Punch and Judy," then the address of the evening by Rev. J. L. Sutton, former pastor of the Davis Avenue Methodist church, now superintendent of the Mississippi Children's Home Society at Jackson, and national president of the Children's Home and Welfare Association.

Gulfside Featuring Song Fest Spiritual Sunday Afternoon at 3

Gulfside, educational and recreational assembly, Waveland South Beach, is featuring a chorus of five hundred Negro voices in song fest of spirituals, this coming Sunday week, August 30, at 3 o'clock, to which the public, friends of Gulfside, are invited. Special seating accommodations. Bishop R. E. Jones, president Gulfside Association, bids welcome to friends to enjoy this privilege of hearing a mighty chorus of five hundred voices.

Cooking School To Be Held at B. W. Y. Clubhouse This P. M.

K. E. Mack, Jr., of New Orleans, has been spending the week in Bay St. Louis preparatory to the free cooking school, to be conducted by the well-known authority, Mrs. Louise Backley, of the Wesson Oil and Snowdrift folks, to take place this Friday, August 21, at 8 o'clock at the Bay Waveland Yacht Clubhouse.

Every lady in Bay St. Louis, Waveland and surrounding territory is invited to attend and witness this interesting school and demonstration. Valuable prizes will be given away.

BLDG. AND LOANTOPAY DIVIDEND

Peoples Association of Bay St. Louis Orders Usual Six Per Cent, Semi-Annual Dividend Paid Sept. 1

At a meeting of the directors of the Peoples Building and Loan Association, held Tuesday afternoon at its domicile in the Masonic Bldg., after reading and accepting the association's affairs for the past six months, which is the second half of its fiscal year, a semi-annual dividend of 6 per cent per annum, was ordered paid September 1.

Holders of paid-up stock certificates to receive their payment in cash and owners of installment stock to have same credited to their pass books.

The Peoples Building and Loan Association reports business as usual, and the fact that it has earned more than it is paying out, backs up its assertion. The Association is in a flourishing condition. It enjoys the confidence of patrons in two states—Louisiana and Mississippi, and promising.

Will Issue New Stock. While the association has not been issuing any paid-up stock certificates the past year or more, an order was passed whereby beginning at once, such certificates will be sold and returned by A. A. Breath is ready to issue such stock on payment of value.

Interesting Meeting Women's Missionary Society Tuesday

The Women's Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss May Edwards with Miss Edwards and Mrs. C. C. McDonald as joint hostesses. There were about thirty in attendance, including several visitors.

The committee in charge of the cake and pie sale on last election day announced over $60 proceeds. This is to be applied to the new Sunday school building. Other projects were discussed for raising the rest of the pledge.

The devotionals was led by Mrs. C. C. McDonald, who used a story from Van Dyke's "Blue Flower" in explanation of the lesson. The program, "Foretelling Future Literacy," was handled in a most interesting manner by Mrs. Donald Marshall. During the social hour, an ice cream was served.

SISTERS OF SAINT JOSEPH RETURN FROM N. O. RETREAT

Sisters of St. Joseph's Convent of Bay St. Louis, headed by Mother Claire, superior, have returned from New Orleans, where they entered the annual eight-day spiritual retreat, the number from here about twelve.

Some ninety-odd sisters from Louisiana and Mississippi participated. Only one change of sisters was announced, following the retreat, Sister Gertrude from here going to New Roads, La., and her place filled here by Sister Constantine of New Roads. Mother Claire and faculty expect the usual quota of pupils at the opening, which will take place September 7th.

Representative of Hugh White to Speak Here and Logtown Monday

Hon. C. L. Alford, of Tylertown, well-known Mississippi politician and speaker, will address the voters of this section at the courthouse in the interest of the candidacy of Hugh White for governor on Monday afternoon, next week, August 24, at 2:30 o'clock at the courthouse.

At 8 o'clock that night Mr. Alford will also speak for Mr. White at Logtown, the ladies especially invited. Reports from over the State are to the effect Mr. White continues to add to his forces and will carry the State next Tuesday by an overwhelming vote. There is no doubt we want a business administration for Mississippi.

AN URGENT APPEAL

THE Bay St. Louis King's Daughters Emergency Hospital is in dire need of help. It is doing so much charitable and free emergency work that its cash receipts for the past month has been only $14.50.

This does not pay but only a small fraction of the expense incurred daily in operating the hospital.

Accident patients going through have received medical attention and service and leave saying they have no money and cannot pay. Local people get the benefit of the hospital and do not pay. Very few do, and these in part.

But since our hospital is not a money-making institution, and it never was intended, it is not expected to make a profit only inasmuch as to take care of its current expenses and to accumulate a fund for emergencies or for expansion or for any unforeseen circumstances that may arise.

Now with no funds on hand, and a month's expense facing the management, as a past due debt, an urgent appeal is made to the public through the columns of The Sea Coast Echo for cash fund. Any amount will be acceptable.

Donations received either by Mrs. E. J. Leonhard, president, or at the hospital or to The Sea Coast Echo, will be gratefully received.

Donations from out of town also gratefully received. Do it in His name, and for humanity's sake. It is a blessed work to heal the sick.

Please send your donation today.

WARREN JACKSON ADDRESSES

Subject of Automobile Fatalities—R. R. Have Less.

"A Greater Evil Than War," was the subject of Warren Jackson, well-known constructive figure of the Mississippi Gulf Coast, who spoke by special invitation before the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club luncheon Wednesday at Hotel Weston, to a 99 per cent attendance meeting of the club.

The greater evil is the death-dealing automobile. Mr. Jackson proved by statistics and a series of charts that there were a greater number of deaths by auto than by the war over the same period and that the figures were growing annually at an alarming rate.

Charts showed the peak hours of the day, the greater number of fatalities arising from certain accidents and the whys and wherefores of it all. The address was well prepared and engaged the attention of every all-too-short period.

Mr. Jackson is a favorite figure along the Coast, a member of the Ocean Springs Rotary Club and his visits to other clubs is always a signal for a talk or discussion worth while. He is versatile and talented, and there is no better posted man along the sea strand of Mississippi.

Railroad fatalities, pointed out Mr. Jackson, were by far the less cause than of any other death-dealing medium of such possibilities.

Unusual Opportunity To Travel and See The Country is Offered

W. A. McDonald, citizen and patriot of the commonwealth of Mississippi, whom we are proud to state lives in Bay St. Louis, is willing to assist anyone or more people who wish to make the trip East and to Canada on the "Know Mississippi Better" train, which will leave Jackson on the 27 at 1 o'clock, and accordingly has an advertisement in this issue of The Sea Coast Echo offering financial assistance to anyone who may wish to go on this trip from this section.

The trip is well worth while and rather than see anyone deprived of the educational value of such a trip because of lack of funds, Mr. McDonald's firm will be willing to advance the money, if the original cost of the trip is $125, but Mr. McDonald says with incidentals and extras one may wish to spend that $200 will be ample.

A brother, John Borzone, well advanced in age, residing in New Orleans, a semi-invalid.

A niece, her deceased brother's child, Mrs. Alice D. Broux-Battaglia, resides in Los Angeles, California, her son, Paul D. Broux, and his family. Also the children of another niece, a sister of Mrs. Battaglia, Mrs. C. W. Patton, who died two years ago at her home in Los Angeles. She was very fond of her two nieces and their children and some years ago visited them in California.

Mrs. Battaglia had traveled considerably in the meridian of her life, visited many places, including Europe. The remains of the departed woman, now in heaven, were taken to New Orleans.

MRS. GEORGE BRANDT OF PASS CHRISTIAN CALLED BY THE REAPER

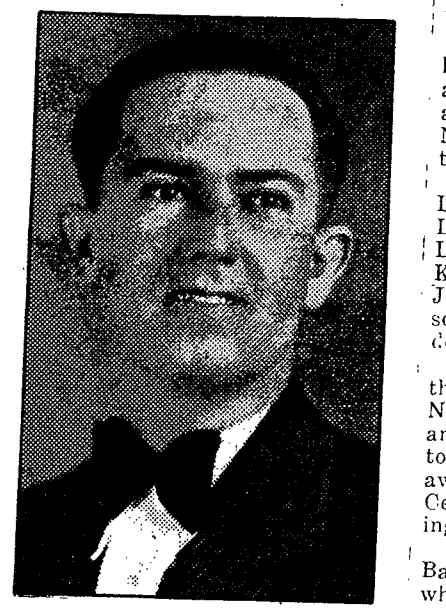

Well-Known and Estimable Coast Resident, Dies Monday Afternoon—Aged 69 Years.

Mrs. Josephine Batt Brandt, widow of George Brandt, died at her home on West Beach, Pass Christian, at 3:50 o'clock Monday afternoon. She had been in failing health several months which culminated in a stroke of paralysis last week from which she did not recover. She was born in New Orleans and was 69 years old. She had resided in Pass Christian many years and reared her family there. Her late husband, a former mayor of Pass Christian and prominent merchant, preceded her to the grave in December, 1928. Mrs. Brandt was identified with the social and musical life of the Coast and for a number of years conducted a private school of music, and was an accomplished pianist and violinist continuing her interest in music to her death.

She is survived by three sons and three daughters, namely, George E. Brandt with the United States Army, Grover C. Brandt of Fort Benning, Ga., Bartholemew B. of Washington, D. C., Mrs. William Tracy Page of California, Mrs. William C. Rhyme of Pass Christian, and Mrs. Finley McCaughan of Long Beach, and several grandchildren.

The funeral services were held Wednesday morning, 8 o'clock, with a requiem high mass at St. Paul's Catholic church of which she was a communicant, with Rev. W. J. Leech, pastor, officiating. The body was taken to New Orleans and directly to St. Louis Cemetery No. 3 for interment at 11 o'clock. The body was laid in state at the family home at 108 West Beach until Wednesday morning.

NEW DATES CHURCH BENEFIT

Benefit Festival St. Claire's Church Postponed to August 22-23.

On account of inclement weather of Saturday and Sunday of last week, it was necessary to postpone the benefit festival, church of St. Claire, Waveland, to this Saturday and Sunday, August 22 and 23.

This will in no way change the program. Beautiful booths, well illuminated, have been constructed on the church grounds and the fair to be held on the spacious church lawn cannot be anything else but the success anticipated. General public invited.

Pajama Dance To Be Given by Committee Of Ladies for Church Debt

Willing to assist the cause realizing funds for a debt September 1st of $3,000, church Our Lady of the Gulf, a committee of chairladies composed of Mrs. Louise Boudin, Miss Alice Glynn, Miss Miriam Boudin and Miss Julia Boudin, will give a Pajama Dance at W. O. W. Hall on the night of Wednesday, September 2. Admission fifty cents; ladies, 25 cents. The committee announces that a prize will be given to the lady wearing the prettiest pajamas.

Any cash or other donations will be gratefully received by calling telephone 58.

Chairman Seal Calls Special Meeting City Dem. Executive Committee

Leo W. Seal, chairman of the County Executive Committee, promulgates an official notice, calling a mass meeting of citizens at the City Hall on the evening of Saturday, September 12, 8 o'clock, for the purpose of selecting and organizing a new City Democratic Executive Committee, since there is none in effect at present. Public interested is expected to be present.

HELP FATHER GMELCH

THERE isn't a Catholic man, woman or child in the parish who does not admire and take pride in their magnificent and beautiful house of worship—the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf. Many thousands of dollars have been expended in bringing the splendid edifice to its present state of completion, but in making such expenditures it was necessary for the beloved pastor, Rev. Fathers Prendergast and Gmelch—to incur a heavy indebtedness, and that indebtedness must be met.

Until the present time payment of the debt, principal and interest, has been easy to meet and no urgent and direct appeal to his parishioners has been made by the pastor.

In order to retire bonds and pay interest due on the 1st of September, it becomes necessary to raise three thousand dollars and Father Gmelch and his assistants on Sunday, at each mass, made strong appeals to the congregation for that amount.

The local parish in point of number of communicants, is, we believe, second in size in the diocese, and it should be a comparatively easy matter for the paltry sum of three thousand dollars to be raised by the date on which the church debt payment falls due.

Every true and sincere member of the church should strain a point to contribute to the extent of his or her financial ability to aid Father Gmelch in meeting the heavy obligation assumed by him, not personally, but for each and every Catholic in the parish.

It is a duty, and should be a pleasure, for all who worship at the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf to harken to the appeal of their beloved spiritual advisor and friend.

Father Gmelch states that at no time in the past has his parishioners failed to heed any call made upon them, and he feels confident that in the present instance his appeal will not fall on deaf ears.

A FEW days since we read a half-column letter written by Mr. W. H. Patton of Shubuta addressed to the editor of the Hattiesburg American in which its author decries the formation of "Roosevelt-For-President" clubs in Mississippi.

Mr. Patton is a dyed-in-the-wool prohibitionist, and no one who knows him doubts his sincerity, as he has devoted his whole life to promoting the cause of temperance, but we believe that he has undertaken a big job when he presumes to dictate to Mississippi Democrats as to who they should or should not select as their standard bearer in 1932.

Reading between the lines of Mr. Patton's letter, we gather that he was one among the several thousand Democrats who voted for Hoover in 1928, and therefore is in no position to even offer the slightest suggestion regarding the candidate who will lead the Democratic hosts to victory in the next national campaign.

THE PEOPLE WILL JUDGE.

IF any one cause more than another to which may be ascribed Mississippi's deplorable financial condition it has been the domination of "practical politicians" in its governmental affairs. This fact has been recognized by the people and for that reason they will on August 25 nominate a "practical" business man as their chief executive. When Mike Conner bases his claim for election on the ground that he has been trained in "the science of government," is a "practical politician," and "a farmer-lawyer," he descends to the lowest level of demagoguery, and it will not bring success to his cause. The people of Mississippi by their ballots in the first primary spoke in thunder tones their disapproval of such campaigning, and still louder will they speak next Tuesday that they are through, for once and for all, listening to such appeals as Mike Conner is making.

SHOULD LEARN THE RIGHT ROAD TO PROSPERITY.

Last winter and during the early spring there was much said about a reduction in cotton acreage, but nothing was done about it, so we were not surprised when the agricultural department issued a statement a few days since predicting a bigger crop the present season. We have faint hope that Southern agriculturists will ever learn anything about the way to better their condition. When they plant cotton as "a money crop" only and give attention to the production of food crops, raising cattle, hogs and other stock they will be on the right road to prosperity.

MIGHT TRY ANYTHING.

When Theodore G. Bilbo quits the governor's office and retires to his Juniper Grove pecan farm he will have ample time to think of the mess he made of his administration and the harm he did to the great State which twice honored him with the highest position within the power of the people to give him. And we are just wondering if he will ever attempt "a come back." He is one of those chaps who never gives up and it would be a great surprise to us if he does not again try to be a factor in Mississippi politics.

GOOD AND SPEEDY WORK.

Up in Michigan they administer justice with lightning speed. Three men, two whites and a negro, murdered four high school students and burned their bodies, and in less than forty-eight hours the fiends were arrested, tried, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment. If the court machinery in other States was oiled up and worked like that of Michigan we would hear of fewer heinous crimes being committed.

WON'T DO MUCH GOOD.

It has been charged that Gov. Huey Long is taking more than just passing interest in Mississippi's gubernatorial contest, but we do not believe that his meddling in our political affairs is going to be of much help to Mike Conner. On the contrary his unwarranted interference will cause the patriotic Mississippi electorate to suspect that Huey has an axe to grind in the event of Conner's election.

WE THINK HE'S RIGHT.

While The Echo's choice for lieutenant-governor "got lost in the shuffle" of votes on August 4, this paper is heart and soul with Dennis Murphree when he declares that he does not think more than a dozen laws should be passed by the next legislature and "that hundreds of laws we now have should be repealed."

We see it stated in the Jackson dailies that Hon. John Lumpkin, senatorial nominee from this district, is the only "out-and-out" Bilboite who landed in the first primary. We are wondering if the Honorable John will not feel a bit lonesome in the senate.

Down in Cuba, President Machado has a revolution to quell, but since some of the leading revolutionists are already in jail it is not likely that many days will elapse before peace and quiet is restored.

NEXT YEAR'S BIG ISSUE.

WHEN President Hoover approved the Smoot-Hawley tariff bill by that act he dealt the Republican party a blow which will result in a transfer of the national administration into the hands of the Democratic party just as surely as the sun rises and sets.

After the enactment of that iniquitous measure it was announced by Republican leaders that there would be a return of prosperity within sixty days, yet economic conditions have steadily been traveling from bad to worse, and the end of the long period of depression is still not in sight.

Senator Pat Harrison in a recent statement is quoted as saying:

"Ask the 6,000,000 unemployed what they think of the tariff that closed the factories in which they were working and drove them out of a job. Ask the manufacturers who have seen foreign markets retire from the purchase of their surplus goods; ask the merchants who have felt purchasing power of their customers decline. Ask the farmers who have seen the price of their wheat decline from 90 cents on the date of the passage of the act to 40 cents today; cotton from 13 to eight cents, corn from 76 to 56 cents. Ask the American investor who has been compelled through retaliatory measures to go abroad to locate his factory to meet foreign competition and give employment to foreign labor, what they think of this Hawley-Smoot tariff act."

With the opening of the presidential campaign, now only a few months away, it is apparent that the big issue on which the contest is waged will be the tariff, to which is traceable the greatest economic depression that our country has ever known. With between six and seven millions of Americans unemployed due to injurious effects of the Hawley-Smoot tariff measure in killing off both the country's export and import business.

It has been the Democratic slogan from the day the party was organized that it stood for "a tariff for revenue only." That declaration has been found in every platform adopted by the party, since the day of its birth. From a modest request for a protective tariff on certain goods and manufactured articles the Republican party has extended the list to include almost every article that can be mentioned, thus shutting our doors to the importation of foreign goods of every description.

The Republican protective policy has been pursued so long that it has brought untold wealth and prosperity to American manufacturing interests and it has resulted in the utter ruin of our agricultural and laboring classes. Their condition today beggars description, and they know where to lodge the blame, and in the election to be held on the second Tuesday in November, 1932, they will sweep the Republican party from power. The tariff issue will overshadow every other issue in the next presidential campaign.

THE KIND OF MAN NEEDED.

THE leading supporters of Judge Paul B. Johnson and Attorney General George C. Mitchell, eliminated as candidates for governor in the first primary, are joining the White forces, thus assuring the nomination of the Columbia lumberman next Tuesday. The only argument advanced by the opposition to Hugh White is that he is wealthy. If that be true, and we know it is, should that fact militate against his fitness to assume the office of chief executive. His wealth was acquired honestly and if he is a millionaire it is proof of his sagacity as a business man—and the good Lord knows that never before in the history of our State was there ever greater or more pressing need for a "business man" being placed in the chief executive's office than now. Our governmental affairs at Jackson have been administered by a bunch of politicians during the past few years and they have very nearly wrecked the State. Graft, corruption and scandal attaches to the names of many of those now occupying high official stations, and for that reason such a man as Hugh White is needed as governor. He has waged a clean fight for the nomination and every cent he has spent in the campaign has come from his own pocket. If he is elected—and The Echo knows he will be—he will be under no obligations to any man, and therefore have no pre-election debts to pay or promises to fulfill.

THOSE 313,000 VOTES.

WHEN the State executive committee had finished tabulating the returns of the first primary it was found that the grand total of votes cast numbered slightly more than 313,000, the largest ever polled in the State. And this, too, in face of the fact that there were thousands of delinquent taxpayers on February 1st, more than ever before in the history of the State. Is it possible that those thousands of delinquents were permitted to vote? Under the law, no man or woman is qualified to cast a ballot who has not paid all real and personal taxes assessed against him or her on or before the first day of February of the year in which they vote. There has been no increase in the population of Mississippi in the past four years that would warrant the heavy vote cast on August 4, and we are at a loss to account for the polling of those 313,000 votes.

NEED WATCHING.

Thousands of men and women who voted for Herbert Hoover in 1928 cast their ballots in the first Democratic primary and will probably again take an active part in the selection of our Democratic nominees next Tuesday. Being a strictly Democratic newspaper, The Echo believes in party regularity, and has no time for party traitors, and it therefore believes that the vote of every known Hoovercrat should be challenged. What guarantee is offered by any of the disloyal and traitorous wolves in sheep's clothing that they will not again stab the Democratic nominees in the back should it happen that such nominees might be "wet" or were members of a religious faith contrary to that of the Hoovercrats.

VIEWS OF OUR NEWS
By Chicagoan

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 18.—Well chosen was Bro. Peter's subject when he appeared before the faculty and students of Kiln Vocational School at the opening of that outstanding institution, which was described in last week's Echo. What better thought for students to have impressed upon them at the beginning of their term than that of "Cooperation." And, from my long reading of the Echo, I know that none is better qualified to discuss that subject than the highly esteemed President of St. Stanislaus College.

In no more beautiful manner will the spirit of cooperation be manifested than it will at the outing of 600 New Orleans orphans in Bay St. Louis on August 23. Brought to the wondrous Bay city by the Knights of Columbus of New Orleans, they will be royally entertained by the citizens of Bay St. Louis, a committee of whom under the direction of Charles A. Gordon, will see to it that the homeless little ones will return to the big city carrying with them lasting impressions of the friendliness and kindness of their neighbors on the bay.

Back to his old home after some time spent in Port Arthur, Texas, H. R. Gianelloni compared and contrasted conditions in the Texas city with those prevailing on the Gulf Coast. From his remarks, quoted at length in last week's Echo, one is again reminded that the Coast country is developing without the aid of any artificial stimulus. In the towns, or those experiencing booms from other causes, the present depression is felt much more than in places which have enjoyed a steady, if not spectacular growth. And the reaction is so hard to bear in places, quoting Mr. Gianelloni, "where a salaried man was not considered a wage-earner; he was a man of big money because he made it big and thought his position was lasting."

Well, latest reports from the "financial front" leave prosperity still as shaky as a lighthouse on her first date. But the people have adapted themselves to the changed conditions, and they are confident that the depression will pass, as have all its predecessors. In the meantime, they are stretching every dollar to the utmost. Advertisements are read more closely than ever before. Stupid merchants have decided against advertising because money is not so plentiful as it once was. But the concerns that have maintained and increased their sales and profits are the ones which maintained or increased their advertising appropriations. They have taken advantage of the torpor of their competitors. Reading the Echo, one naturally associates with the wise men of the commercial world, such local institutions as the Hancock County Insurance Agency, Merchants Bank and Trust Co., Thigpen-Whitfield Hardware Co., of Picayune, Peoples Building and Loan Association, Atlas Drug Store and other advertisers. "Cause," the non-advertisers have one advantage. I'm unable to mention their names in this column, even if the fellows I talk about are getting the business.

Like unto a king at the zenith of his power and glory is Summer in its last days. Proud of its attainment, the season parades them in review for such as Mrs. J. Burg and daughter, Adelaide, who says the Waveland news, chose it for their motor trip to Pensacola, Port San Carlos and other places of interest. Though those who elect to follow low ribbon roads across plains, through valleys and up steep mountain sides, Nature displays her accomplishments with triumph that is almost audible.

For Sale: A 15-acre farm. So advertised C. B. Dicks in the Echo last week. This choice bit of the earth is offered at a time when thrifty folks in the big cities are seriously considering land as an investment. The value of the stocks and bonds in which they had invested their savings has also dropped. And did I ever try raising strawberries on a share of stock, no matter how well watered it was? Well, that 15 acres should not be for sale long. Ant don't be surprised if the new neighbors are city folks. If they are, be kind to them. Assure them that the cow they will have bought is not ancient because she happens to have no upper teeth. But warn them to approach "bossy" from the right side when they appeal to her for milk.

I know that most subscribers read last week's well written editorials on the political situation in Mississippi, and of the opportunity of the people to place their state high in the list of well governed commonwealths. And I also know that in reading the non-factional editorials, Bay St. Louis citizens realized more than ever the value of the Echo to the community. They were reminded that this good paper is dedicated to public service, and is not published solely to provide revenue for the publisher. An editor with only thoughts for the acquiring of dollars would not have the ability, nor the inclination, to express such sentiment and logic.

FIDELITY
JUDICIARYWITH THE ITINERANT BANDS OF COTTON PICKERS IN TEXASBy JOHN T. MEYERS
(For The Sea Coast Echo)

AT this time the blooming cotton fields of southwest Texas are a beautiful waving mass of snowy whiteness. King Cotton is enjoying a brief undisputed hour of triumph. But the reign of this snow-white monarch of the Texas fields will be short lived. Already great hordes of cotton pickers from widely scattered sections of the State, and countless Mexican peons from a foreign land across the Rio Grande, are taking to the fields to pick the abundant cotton crop that is evident in this section of the country.

And as every turn of the highway there is presented a picture of care-free adventure and romance linked with a happy-go-lucky spirit as this nomadic army of cotton pickers wends its course to the blooming cotton fields.

During cotton picking season Plazas in the Mexican section of San Antonio resemble some refugee camp in wartime. Entire Mexican families are gathered here with their scant personal possessions tied in blankets and bright-hued shawls. Mexican laborers constitute the larger total of workers engaged in this task. The children will work in the fields along with their elders. Here and there among this noisy crowd chattering in a foreign tongue, one will probably observe a bleating goat. This is a luxury for the family so fortunate, and means that there will be leche (milk) to drink.

Many farmers personally visit the Plazas in San Antonio to secure hands to pick their cotton. If the Mexican laborers come to terms with the cotton growers, they are crowded into waiting trucks and transported to the fields, where meager housing, and rations are oftentimes provided. Although their tasks are strenuous, and compensation scarcely worth while, there seems to be a prevailing holiday spirit among the workers during cotton picking season. Guitars and other musical instruments are in evidence as this army of toilers make ready for the field. Later there will be happy gatherings about camp fires by night. . . . or, under the spell of a Texas moon amorous Mexican swains will play their guitars and serenade the señoritas of the heart's choice with tender Mexican songs of love.

And after a little while when the fields of southwest Texas have been stripped of their snowy garment this wandering band of cotton pickers will begin a trek northward toward the Panhandle section of the state. Due to climatic conditions, cotton bears at a later date in north Texas, thus the cotton pickers shift about as there is demand for their services.

A GOOD IDEA

The State of Pennsylvania has a restricting clause in its constitution that every State ought to adopt. It prohibits the State from incurring an indebtedness beyond a million dollars.

At times such an inhibition might work a hardship, but the good it would do would surely outweigh an occasional hardship.

What Mississippi needs is business in its government.

The same sort of principles that govern private business.

Such business should be free of political astuteness and influence.

It would do little or no good if it is influenced and hedged about by political manipulation.

Mississippi needs a business administration free from political affiliation or influence in any manner whatsoever.—Columbus Commercial Dispatch.

CHAS. G. MOREAU, Pres. F. H. BLOFFE, V. Pres. GEO. R. BREA, Treas.THE TWO CANDIDATES.

(Editorial From McComb Enterprise)

Here is a fair test of the public spirit and unselfish interest which characterize the two candidates for governor, today.

Friends of Hugh White know that he is moved by a zeal to aid his state in a period of emergency. He has no desire to reward job-seekers, build a political machine or appease any of the ordinary political passions. His campaign is a campaign of unselfishness.

Now friends of Mr. Conner say the same thing for him. But the records do not indicate that this is true. Four years ago Mr. Conner fought Bilbo. He enraged a state, and righteously so, against Bilboism and predicted what actually did happen, if the people elected Bilbo.

The anti-Bilbo voters went to the polls. Some voted for Mr. Conner; some voted for Mr. Murphree. The latter was in the run-off with Theodore G. Bilbo.

The second primary fight was a fight between Bilboism and anti-Bilboism. It was a critical moment in our State's affairs.

This situation gave Mr. Conner the greatest possible opportunity to reveal his unselfish interest in Mississippi. He had already condemned Bilbo. He had already prophesied dire results should Bilbo be elected. His influence thrown to Dennis Murphree at that moment would have saved his state. The balance of power was in his hands. With his leadership, his friends, his influence, and his organization, Mr. Conner could have prevented the scourge which visited Mississippi during the past four years.

But Mr. Conner did not rally to the cause he had previously championed. He did not continue the attack on the things he had up to that moment condemned with all the vigor of his soul and mind and body. His political indifference enabled Bilboism to be perpetuated for another four years.

Mr. Conner's decision, doubtlessly was a political decision. No condemnation on this score. No ill will. It is typical political tactics but in a campaign of this kind we are forced to brand it as a political move not to the best interest of Mississippi.

We wish we could say that Mr. Conner had done the unselfish, public-spirited thing. But he didn't. He assumed the role of politician and not patriot. He could have been the man of the hour but he accepted it as the hour for the man. He chose selfishly. It is not for us to say that a political trade was made. But Mr. Conner did not continue the fight and the state suffered accordingly.

We like Mike Conner. He is an affable fellow, likable, pleasing, a prince among men. But this is a campaign between the people and politicians. To serve the people at this crucial hour would be to play false against the state.

Hugh White's record on the other hand is one of unselfish service. Study his life, his activities, his contributions. Positive proof is available that he is actuated by a desire to help his commonwealth.

No political designs can be traced to his employment of Gypsy Smith to stage revival services in Mississippi; no scheming can be seen in his personal support of Missionaries in Brazil and China; no political manipulation can be seen in his educating scores of boys and girls; or in his financial aid to agriculture; or in his industrial contributions; or in his repeated services to his state in a hundred different ways.

Mr. White is a practical business man. Mr. Conner is a practical politician. Between the two the people must choose and this is no time to dabble in politics. We must look to the man of the hour and that man is Hugh L. White, native of Pike county and candidate for the governorship of Mississippi.

The People of Mississippi In a Death Grapple With The Money Power

THE MONEY POWER IS BACKING HUGH WHITE, THE SAW MILL KING OF SOUTH MISSISSIPPI.

The People are Backing Mike Conner, Their True Tried Servant and Friend.

THE FIGHT IS ON

Hugh White, a Millionaire himself by inheritance, is backed by the lumber barons of South Mississippi, some of whom have sought recently to turn the State over to the Republican Party. They are using as their chief warrior, the Jackson Daily News edited by Fred Sullens. While Mr. White himself has gone over the State making a so-called clean campaign, The Jackson Daily News, the organ and champion of the Power Companies, the Railroads, and all other corporations, which are seeking to place the burdens of taxation on the backs of the people, has made the dirtiest and most cowardly campaign in behalf of Mr. White, that has ever been waged in the State.

For fifteen years Mike Conner has served the people faithfully and well. Foes as well as friends have admitted his honesty and faithfulness to the interests of the toiling masses of our State.

But NOW you are being told by the Jackson Daily News and the Political bosses who have enrolled under the banner of Hugh White, that there is something wrong with Mike Conner. After he has whipped the political bosses of Mississippi and sent them scurrying to the Millionaire Lumber King for protection, these same bosses are now trying to tell the people of the state that Mike Conner, who has always refused to do their bidding, will take orders from an alleged political boss from another state. The absurdity of the charge makes it funny, if a malicious lie were ever funny.

The PEOPLE well know that if anything had been wrong with Mike Conner, they would have heard about it during the past fifteen years.

The friends of the Lumber King, the representative of corporate wealth and the political bosses who have organized every voting precinct in Mississippi for the purpose of spreading vile and dirty lies against Mike Conner on election day. When these reports are told to you, please ask the one bearing the tale why those vile things reflecting on Mike Conner have never been heard during the past fifteen years. Tell him that you have heard Mike Conner speak, that you know the record he has made in the service of the people and that you are going to vote for him, and work for him.

What you have heard during the past few days, and what you hear between now and election day, which reflects on the honesty of Mike Conner, are plain LIES circulated by corporate wealth and political bosses in their own behalf and against the people of the state.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

Eggs are universally recognized as a meat substitute and the common denominator of easily prepared dishes. Eggs are rich in all elements which build muscle, bone and blood. Anyone who needs building up should include eggs in his meals.

Scrambled Rice With Eggs.

3 eggs, 1 cupful of cooked rice, ½ cupful of milk, ¼ teaspoonful of salt, 2 tablespoons butter, pepper to taste.

Beat the eggs only until mixed, and add the milk, salt, and rice. Heat the butter in a frying pan, add the egg and rice mixture and cook over a slow heat, stirring from the bottom of the pan until the eggs are set and the mixture is rather firm. Season with pepper and serve at once. Serve with sautéed tomatoes and fresh cooked spinach or greens.

Scalloped Eggs.

9 eggs, salt and pepper, butter, 1 cup white sauce, 1½ cups bread crumbs.

Cook the eggs hard and when cool slice them thin. In an oiled baking dish alternate layer of the sliced eggs, crumbs and white sauce. Sprinkle the eggs with salt and pepper and dot each layer of crumbs with butter. Make the top layer of crumbs. Bake in moderate oven until browned.

Asparagus Omelet

2 tablespoons butter, 6 eggs, 2 tablespoons flour, pepper to taste, 1 cup milk, 3-4 cup of diced cooked asparagus, ½ teaspoon salt.

Melt the butter, add the flour, and smooth to a paste. Add the milk and stir until smooth sauce is formed—add the asparagus and salt. Separate the eggs; beat the yolks thoroughly and add to the sauce; fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Add pepper to taste and pour into a heated pan containing a tablespoon of butter. Cook in a moderate oven thirty minutes.

Scrambled Eggs With Cheese

½ pound American cheese, run through grater, ½ cup milk, 8 eggs, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, salt and pepper to taste.

Beat eggs lightly, and add remaining ingredients. Pour into a well buttered skillet and cook very slowly, stirring constantly so the cheese will be melted by the time the eggs are cooked. Serve on toast.

He Saw To That.

Mother—That young man who called on you last night is very rich. I hope you didn't treat him distant.

Daughter—Indeed, I didn't, mother. I was very much drawn to him—very much.

RAIN OF SUNDAY HALTED BASEBALL IN COAST LOOP LEAGUE

Bay St. Louis, Waveland And Other Coast Teams Will Have to Play Games Later, Possibly.

Continued heavy rains along the Mississippi Coast Sunday halted the ninth round second half Mississippi Coast League games scheduled to be played in Biloxi, Pass Christian and Bay St. Louis.

The Biloxi Bakers, with an opportunity to clinch their first league championship, were scheduled to play the Waveland Sentinels, Pass Christian's Pirates were docketed to tangle with Gulfport's Tarpons and Bay St. Louis was to play home to Ocean Springs.

Whether the rained out games will be played cannot be determined until after games of next Sunday. Should Biloxi triumph over Gulfport the Bakers would clinch the flag and would make it unnecessary for the rained out games of Sunday to be played August 30.

Though it has not been announced from official sources it was reported Monday morning that the Biloxi-Gulfport game, scheduled to be played at the Fair Grounds, would be transferred to the Biloxi stadium with Gulfport acting as the "home club."

Next Sunday's schedule closes the 1931 season unless Gulfport defeats the dope bucket and defeats Biloxi while either Ocean Springs, Pass Christian or Waveland are turning in victories. The latter named trio of clubs are tied for second place two games behind the leaders.

Sunday was the first time this season that weather has prevented Coast League games to be played. However, on a few occasions this season rain has halted games after the allotted five innings necessary to constitute an official game.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klein, backers of the Biloxi Bakers, have planned a vacation trip into Texas and Mexico to start next Tuesday, after the close of the Coast League schedule. It was announced that the schedule for next season exhibition game with the Wambags Bakery of New Orleans would not be played as several players are awaiting the close of the Coast League schedule to start football training while others are engaged in the fishing business which started this week.

Bay Panthers To Play Pass Christian S. S. C. Park, Sunday

The Bay Panthers of the Mississippi Coast League meet the Pass Christian Pirates at St. Stanislaus Park here, Sunday, August 23rd. Both teams have been going strong and will be out to win the game and see one of the best games of the season. Game at 3 P. M.

The Panthers are trying to arrange two good post-season games—one with North Elkhart and one with Gulfport Veterans. Hospital team of the South Mississippi League.

KILN HI TO PLAY EIGHT GRID GAMES

When the curtain rises on the 1931 football season at Kiln High school only six letter men will be back to answer the call. Inexperienced and light men must be called upon to fill their places. With L. Garriga, L. Seal, O. Seal and W. Harrell, veterans have been added to the team. P. Garriga, last year's reserves, back in harness the situation looks more encouraging.

The schedule is as follows:

September 25—Open.
October 2—Ocean Springs at Kiln.
October 16—Long Beach at Kiln.
October 23—Lynn at Kiln.
October 30—Pass Christian at Kiln.
November 6—Open.
November 14—Pascagoula at Pascagoula.
November 20—Bay Hi at Bay St. Louis.
November 26—St. Paul at Covington.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LAND.

Whereas Edward Schwartz and Loretta Klock Schwartz executed a Deed of Trust conveying to W. V. Yates, as Trustee, certain land situated in Hancock County, State of Mississippi, to secure in indebtedness owing by them to the Peoples Building & Loan Association, which Deed of Trust is dated October 25, 1928, and recorded in Vol. No. 24, pages 3-5, Records of Mortgages and Deeds of Trust on land in Hancock County, and therein described as the land, with its rights and appurtenances situated in Hancock County, State of Miss., and described as follows: Two lots situated in the City of Bay St. Louis designated as Lot 97 (Ninety Seven), and 98 (Ninety Eight) Fourth Ward, on an official map of said City made by E. S. Drake, C. E., filed in the office of the Clerk of the Chancery Court of said County, on May 1, 1928. Said Lot 97 has a front on the Western line of Front Street, and runs back between parallel lines, 66.55 feet apart on a course N. 70 degrees W., measured along the South line (North line of this lot) of Ballantine Street, 435 feet, and 402.5 feet along its south line. Said Lot 98 is the beach lot, east of Front Street; its north and south lines are continuations of similar lines of said Lot 97. Being the same land conveyed by Mrs. Mary Klock to the said Edward Schwartz, by deed dated April 5, 1924, recorded in Vol. D-5, pages 558-554, Records of Deeds of said Hancock County.

Whereas default has been made in the payment of said indebtedness, according to the terms of said Deed of Trust, and

Whereas the said Association has requested the undersigned, W. V. Yates, as Trustee, to duly execute said Deed of Trust, according to its terms by a sale of the property therein described;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the undersigned Trustee will sell the above described property, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash before the front door

COMMENT ON SPORTS BY SHERIDAN

OUR 1932 OLYMPIC DEMPSEY FIGHTING STREET HOLDS JOB SCHMELING'S OPTIC AMERICA/BEATS ENGLAND SUN BEAU BEATEN PITCHER WINS 34 OF 35 BOXING OPINIONS

In just about a year the Olympic games of 1932 will be underway in and around Los Angeles, where the nations of the world will send their finest to compete in fifteen branches of sports. More than 2,000,000 spectators are expected to witness the athletic events which comprise 135 distinct competitions. Besides, the U. S. will demonstrate a football game and an international demonstration will be represented by lacrosse.

Jack Dempsey's comeback seems to be something more than words, if we are to judge by the fact that he is taking the road for exhibition matches. Maybe, the old mauler has lost his dough and needs the money! Anyhow, if he wants it, and gets into shape by knocking over a few fighters, he will have the fans yelling for him to have a chance at the biggest boys in the business, and he will be able to collect around a million for his appearance, leaving plenty for the management.

Well, it's settled now. Gabby Street won't lose his job managing the Cardinals because he looks like a pennant winner. President Sam Brandon made the announcement disposing of the suspicion that St. Louis would can another manager for winning the pennant. Incidentally, Rogers Hornsby seems to be solid with President Veeck, of the Cubs, who declares "we have the best manager in baseball." That's high praise and considering that Messrs. Mack and McGraw are still tottering around, we take it that the Cub head meant to say that he was satisfied with the Rajah.

The damaged optic of Herr Max Schmeling has us a little puzzled. You recall, after the fight, the German said no punch hurt him, and he sailed for home apparently claving the air for an opponent. Soon after he arrives in the Fatherland, word comes of a damaged eye, and now the doctors, in a written statement, report an "injury to the bony surroundings of the eye, bleedings of conjunctive and a contusion of the eye-ball, connected with swimming of the air far an opponent." Well, it sounds bad enough, and "forgets" training as well as a fight for a long time." Sometimes, we almost believe Stripling hurt Max!

Led by the two Helms, of California, the American Wightman cup team defeated the British invaders, 5-2. In the singles, the home team was supreme, but in the doubles the English were able to repeat their clean sweep for the fourth year in succession. The match at Forest Hills was the ninth clash of the two teams, with each having four victories before this year.

Incidentally, Sun Beau, carrying 131 rounds on his back, was beaten by Plucky Play in the Hawthorne handicap. The winner ran 25 pounds lighter, and managed, just at the finish, to go ahead by a length and a half. Even at that, Sun Beau added about $4,000 to his record winnings. During the week, however, owner Kilmer took time to declare that he would not permit his horse to race at Agua Caliente again under any conditions.

What would the major league magnets give for a pitcher who won 34 out of 35 games? Well, maybe, the park and a couple of dozen ball-tossers, and yet in the Pacific Coast league, Frank Shellenback, who has done this, hasn't a chance to get into the big circuits. He is a spit-ball performer, and barred by the older organizations. Since August 12, 1930, up to ten days ago, he lost only one game, a 2-0 decision on May 3.

One idea of optimism comes from Burleigh Grimes, effective spit-baller of the Cardinals, who says that Grove will be "duck soup" to his pals. Burleigh says that Grove has "em scared to death in the American league. Besides, says the hurler, the Cardinals will beat the A's so easily it will be funny. Yeh, it will!

Damon Runyon thinks Walker would have a better chance against Schmeling than any other man in the ring, praising his ability to block body punches. Jack Dempsey gives Mickey ability, a punch and courage—three assets which makes champions, but along comes James J. Corbett, and allows that Mickey has been beaten by men not ranked among the first 25 when American heavy-weights are rated.

The camp counselor was explaining the rules of the game. "If the enemy calls your number from his side of the battlefield," she said, "you must be a 'dead man' immediately. ## SUPERVISOR EMILIO CUE CITES HIS RECORD IN EF- FECTING TAX REDUCTION

Has Saved Over Eighteen Thousand Dollars Per Annum
To Tax-Payers In Beat 5—Outlines His Aims For A Continuance Thereof, If Re-Elected.

So that to date the interest is all paid, and the County has an indebtedness in all of $1,774,050.00
Against which there is in the Bank a sinking fund for retirement of bonds of 34,450.00

Leaving a total indebtedness not provided for as of this date of $1,739,600.00

This indebtedness is not all to be paid from the taxes,—on the contrary over a Million Dollars thereof is to be paid from the gasoline tax, which is not a property tax and which is each year liquidating the indebtedness against which the bonds were issued.

As to what I have been able to do for Beat No. 5 is apparent from the figures.

In 1928 when I was elected to the Board, the real estate assessment in Beat 5, embracing Bay St. Louis, Waveland and Lakeshore, totalled $3,132,708.51

Today the real estate assessment is 2,990,980.00

A saving on the assessment of $141,728.51

The personal assessment in Beat 5 for 1928

was $607,146.27

On the 1930 Roll it is 378,543.46

Saving on Personal Assessment $228,602.81

MAKING A TOTAL SAVING ON ASSESSMENT OF $370,331.32

for this period, or 10 per cent reduction in the assessed values.
In addition to that tax levy or the amount you must pay on each dollar, has been cut from 41 mills, as it existed in 1928, to 40 mills. The result of which is that the people of this beat are now saving annually, in actual payment of taxes, the sum of $18,523.13

It is my purpose if re-elected to continue this good work until the burden of taxation will have been so relieved that property valuations will be increased, thereby inviting capital here, which we have never been able to get before.

The foregoing reduction in taxes has been possible by the strictest economy and of good business methods applied by the whole Board of which I am only its humble President.

The figures hereinabove given to you are taken from the Assessment Rolls at the Court House and I should be glad to have anyone interested therein verify them.

I solicit your support in the coming election not only upon my promises for the future, because any one can make promises, but upon my record.

C. GREER MOORE ACTIVE IN AIDING CONNER'S CAUSE

Statement Denies Knowledge of Pledge to Build Short Route.

(N. O. Times-Picayune)

While asserting that he has been active on the Gulf Coast and elsewhere in the state of Mississippi where he could further Mike Conner's gubernatorial candidacy, C. Greer Moore announced Monday that he knows nothing of reports that assurances have been given coast citizens that the short route would be constructed if Mr. Conner is elected.

Reference to his activities in Mississippi, Mr. Moore states, is a source of amusement to him.

Moore Amused

"The announcement," Mr. Moore explains, "is caused by the false rumors that are reported along the Gulf coast about assurances that the short route will be started immediately if Conner is elected. I wish to brand this as false, or I have been sleeping on the job for I have not heard this rumor, and I have been active on the Gulf coast and elsewhere in the state where I could further Mike Conner's cause."

Mr. Moore, who was appointed a member of the New Orleans dock board by Governor Huey P. Long and who resigned when the question of his domicile was raised, points out in his statement his close connection with Mississippi.

Born in Mississippi

"There has never been any question about Greer Moore," the statement reads. "I was born in Mississippi, raised in Biloxi where my sacred mother, who is looking to the sunset of her active life, now resides.
My honored father sleeps in the Biloxi cemetery. My ancestors for generations have contributed to the upbuilding of this great commonwealth, and they now sleep in its hallowed ground."

"I contribute hundreds of dollars each year to taxes in Mississippi, and everything I own is now in that state."

Mr. Moore then recites that he counts Governor Long among his friends and that he was associated with Earl Long in business for more than 15 years. He states that he has not had an opportunity to speak to Governor Long since congratulating him upon his election to the United States Senate.

Rush Knox collected over Two Million Dollars in back taxes when he was in office before.

In recent months when the fight was the hottest and the bitterest, Rush Knox was the one candidate in Mississippi, that made the fight in the open, and the one man that carried the burden and the brunt of Bilbo's attacks.

Will our victory of August 4th be

Ten Reasons

WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE FOR D. J. EVERETT FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION OF HANCOCK COUNTY

1. He is qualified by training and experience, two requisites essentials which make for success.
2. He is efficient from every angle and is uniformly courteous. Every patron of his office receives full consideration and service.
3. He has a record made while in office. This record speaks for itself.
4. He has increased the full School Term from Seven to Eight months. He has accomplished this without increased taxation.
5. His record will show a decrease in taxes for school purposes.
6. He has accumulated $24,000 to operate schools during the fall months without borrowing before tax money is collected, as formerly.
7. He ranks as one of the foremost county superintendents of the State with the State Department of Education, and thus can get help from the State when the schools of the county should happen to need it.
8. He is certainly striving and succeeding in giving every child in Hancock county an opportunity to get a High School Education.
9. Why make a change when such successful conditions in our county school affairs speak so well?
10. It would possibly not be the wise thing at this time to make a change when there is no necessity for it.

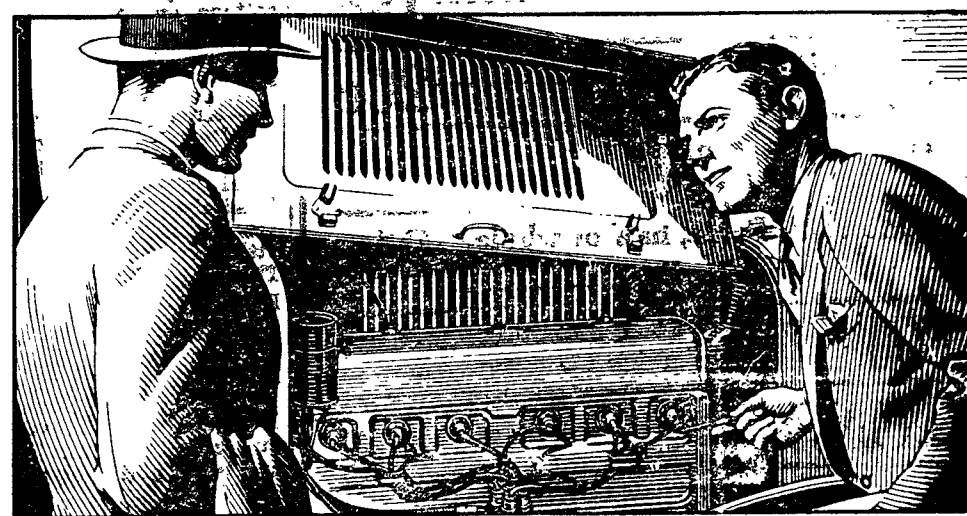

If we are progressing, growing and patrons of the schools are well satisfied then why should we not continue to do so?

On TUESDAY, AUGUST 25, VOTE FOR—

D. J. EVERETT,

County Supt. of Education.

Learn what a difference six cylinders make

Step out of any other low-priced car into a Chevrolet, and learn the difference six cylinders make.

"Idle" the engine—and the whole car remains steady. Open the throttle—the power flows evenly.
Accelerate—throttle down—go fifteen or fifty—and this smoothness stays with you whatever you do. It's actually built into the motor—and objectionable vibration never even starts!

Yet smoothness is only one of many six-cylinder advantages. There's greater quietness, because noisy vibration is gone. There's greater comfort, because built-in smoothness doesn't tire you out.
There's greater flexibility, because the power-impulses of a six overlap. And a six is much easier to handle!

If you raise the hood of a Chevrolet and watch the engine running so smoothly, you'll realize that six cylinders also mean greater dependability.

And remember when you do—that no other car is so economical to operate as the Chevrolet Six.

Mississippi's Need:
A BUSINESS GOVERNOR.HUGH L. WHITE
CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

Is the logical man to take care of the State of Mississippi, to raise it from the depths of debt and depression and to lead our people to that destined stand, in the eyes of the world, where it rightfully belongs.

A vote for White is a vote for clean, business-like administration. As the "practical business man" he should give us a sane and practical administration. He will get the State out of debt and reduce taxation.

CITY ECHOES.

—Mr. D. W. Griffith, of Vicksburg, father of our townsman, Mr. D. C. Griffith, died at his place of residence Tuesday morning.

—Mrs. "Bob" Stubb, of New Orleans, is spending a few days visiting Mrs. Sidney W. Prague at the family home on the beach front.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Evans and family spent the week-end at Quitman, Miss., where they visited relatives, returning home next day. They made the trip by auto.

—Mr. Ernest Ladner, who accompanied his sister back from New York last week, will remain at the family home in Hancock street for an indefinite period, possibly remaining south.

—All Standard Oil stations are now stations for receiving telegrams for the Postal Telegraph Company. File your telegram with a Standard Oil station and receive prompt attention.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillen are out from New Orleans for an indefinite visit and are occupying their cozy home in State street. Their friends note their return with pleasure.

—Mrs. G. A. Blaffer and young niece, Miss Hassinger, are out from New Orleans visiting at the home of their relative, Miss L. C. Del Bondio on the Pass Christian beach. Mrs. Blaffer was the honoree of a two-day schooner fishing trip given Wednesday on board the Lillian Parker by her niece, Miss Del Bondio.

—Miss Irwina Lorch is preparing for a trip to Waynesville, N. C., accompanied by a friend from New Orleans. Many go to the mountains in the late summer and find it one of the best times to visit.

—Little Miss Helene Kergosien returned home Monday evening from Monroe, La., where she has been residing with her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gaines and family.

—Miss Bertha Compton, of Leland, Miss., is the accomplished young guest of Miss Norma Gex, at the E. J. Gex home in Court street. Miss Gex is a university class-mate of Miss Compton.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Osoinach are planning a trip to Cincinnati in the immediate future, where they will visit their son, Mr. A. J. Osoinach. The latter's wife and young son plan to return home during the early fall from their summer visit to Europe.

—Mrs. P. J. Bachemin, Mrs. Olivier Mader and little son, O. J. Mader, 1135 Crest street, New Orleans, with Mrs. G. W. Prados also of New Orleans are spending the month of August at Knoll Pleasant in Bookter avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith of Birmingham, Ala., visiting on the Gulf Coast, spent the week-end visiting their relatives Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Canty at the family home in Carroll avenue. Leaving here they motored for a trip down through Florida.

—The appeal for the Bay St. Louis King's Daughters Hospital, which appears elsewhere in this issue of The Sea Coast Echo should not go unheeded. Every cash mite will help in the aggregate. Bay St. Louis people are known for their willingness and generosity and this time will surely not prove the exception. Contributions addressed to The Echo will be promptly turned over.

—Mr. Ralph Huberwald, of New Orleans, spent a few days last week participating in the recreational pleasures of Clermont Harbor, visiting his friend, Mr. Frank J. Chalona at the summer home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chalona.

—Miss Virginia Kepper, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kepper of New Orleans recently visited Miss Joy Chalona for a few weeks at the Chalona home on the golfward at Clermont. Miss Claire Foster of New Orleans, will be Miss Chalona's house guest for the coming week.

—Miss Peachy Plovaty returned to her home in Chicago Saturday, after spending the past two months as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chalona at their summer villa on the Clermont Harbor beach, and also with Miss Joy Chalona, young daughter of the house.

—Mr. Clarence Osoinach, of New Orleans, spent the early part of the week visiting under the parental roof of Mr. and Mrs. John Osoinach, on South Beach Boulevard, and also visiting his brother, Mr. Henry W. Osoinach, and family, in Carroll avenue.

—Mrs. Arthur Boyd and daughter, Misses Ethel and Elsie Boyd, from Richmond, Va., are in the Coast, visiting at the home of Mrs. Boyd's sister, Mrs. W. F. Witter at the family home in Leonhard avenue. The party will remain for the balance of the month.

—Mr. Ben Hille and bride returned home Monday evening from an extensive motor trip which took them through various parts of Texas and Louisiana. They are at home to their friends at their apartments with Mr. and Mrs. R. Sellier, Carroll avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Genin left Tuesday morning for Jackson in their Cadillac for a visit of a couple of days in the Capital City where "Bob" is prominently known and the Madam is equally socially well-known. Their visit there was a source of general pleasure to their wide Jackson acquaintance.

—A benefit card party is in progress this Thursday afternoon at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, benefit Episcopal Guild, and it is expected to raise considerable funds to defray necessary expenses. Mrs. Kenneth W. Pepperdine is in charge as president of the Guild and day further contributions may be made to her.

—Miss Francis Virginia Elliott, will return to New Orleans Sunday, after having spent the summer with her parents, here. Miss Elliott will start her school duties at St. Stephens High School in New Orleans, residing with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Delgado Drive.

—Mr. George W. Law, well-known lumber operator of Lake Charles, La., where he has been a prominent resident for years, accompanied by his family has leased the Eastwood cottage on North Beach Boulevard for two months and will spend the delightful late summer and early fall here.

—Mr. J. V. Dement, proprietor of the Dement Printing Works at Meridian, Miss., accompanied by his family are spending a week on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, registered at the Hotel Markham, Gulfport. The little party visited Bay St. Louis Thursday and were guests of the publisher of The Sea Coast Echo.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Shields, Jr., and Bernard III, left for their home in New Orleans Sunday, after spending two months in Bay St. Louis, enjoying the various coast aquatic attractions, including land sports of golf and tennis, of which the latter Mr. Shields is quite a devotee.

—Every day is Dollar Day Sale in Bay St. Louis. By actual comparison of advertised prices with newspapers of other cities it is proven in many instances Bay St. Louis merchants have it for less. This fact has been proven so frequently and conclusively that it seems almost useless to again call attention to this fact. A certain paint selling for $1.00 per quart, advertised in another city as a dollar bargain, sells for $2.50 per gallon in Bay St. Louis.

TO PAY VISIT TO
MISS. GULF COAST

Famous Fighter Will Be Here Through Instrumentality of Sec'y of the Navy, Jahncke.

The reconditioned U. S. S. Constitution "Old Ironsides," will be at Gulfport January 15-19, Ernest Lee Jahncke, the assistant secretary of the navy, announced at his offices in Washington Saturday.

Commodore Jahncke said that he had made arrangements for the famous frigate to drop anchor at New Orleans on January 28 and to remain until February 11. The Constitution will be in New Orleans for Mardi Gras, February 9.

Before its visit at Gulfport the historic vessel will stop at Mobile. Later it will go up the Mississippi to Baton Rouge for a stay. It is scheduled to arrive at Gulfport January 15 and remain until January 19. Baton Rouge will be reached January 21. After staying in Baton Rouge until January 26, the vessel will be brought down the river to New Orleans. Leaving New Orleans, the Constitution will make for the Texas ports and

School Children Help.

The famous frigate was restored with finances realized through the "Save the Constitution Fund" and congressional appropriations. The fund of $400,000 used in reconditioning the craft included many nickels and dimes collected among New Orleans school children in August, 1925.

Several weeks ago the famous ship started visiting ports along the Eastern seaboard. The public is allowed on board to inspect the frigate in every port with the Constitution visits. The ship accoutrements and crew uniforms are in keeping with the days of 1812.

Keel Laid in 1794.

The Constitution was one of the first three ships of the United States navy. Her keel was laid in Hart's Shipyard, Boton, in November, 1794. She was christened and launched on October 21, 1797.

She won glory and the name "Old Ironsides" in the War of 1812, when she scored decisive victories over some British men-of-war when the British observed that their cannon balls bounced harmlessly off her stout hull as if she had sides of iron. Captain Isaac Hull, as the vessel's commander, gained fame through the Constitution's victories. The frigate once was used to suppress Algerian piracy and French privateering of the West Indies.

Will Visit 27 Ports

The Constitution is to make 27 visits to ports of the South, including Washington and Baltimore, between October and next April.

Chamber of Commerce
To Hold Meeting On Saturday Afternoon

There will be a special meeting of landowners, farmers and others at the Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce on this Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, for the further discussion of strawberry growing for next season.

Those who own land and implement may come forward and arrange for financing for fertilizer, plants and crates.

Mr. Charles Stassi has arranged to stop here and handle crops. Hence the necessity of everyone interested being present is self evident and the hope is expressed there will be a large attendance. The success of the strawberry crop in Hancock county for next season means the success of the county and people as a whole.

gene Mogab, Mrs. Elmer Prescott, Mrs. G. Prescott.
